

HALO ULTRA BLUE

Revolutionary invention brings you the next frontier in all-natural light & plant therapy

After thousands of hours in the laboratory and hundreds of trials, in 1999, Master Chemist Michael Thomas, theorized that light could pick up the vibrational harmonics of botanical extracts contained in clear glass vials, and carry that vibration to the body.

The HALO Ultra Blue (Pro Edition) contains 100's of botanical extracts and other natural substances that are beneficial to the body's good-working order and mechanisms.

When you use the system, you will notice:

- Increased Energy
- Stress Reduction
- Clarity of Mind & Thought
- Better Mobility & Flexibility
- Supports Nervous System
- Pain & Inflammation Management
- Supports Immune System

Through the use of Biophotonic Therapy, an emerging area of scientific research that uses light and other forms of radiant energy to enhance the inner workings of cells and tissues in living organisms, these harmonious frequencies are introduced into the body.

The botanical filled vials included in this kit are:
